

Harassment in the Workplace: “What Every Employee Needs to Know”

In the wake of the recent scandals involving high-profile individuals, as well as the #MeToo Movement, the topic of harassment in the workplace has become a hot button issue. Because of this, it's more vital now than ever that organizations take the time to understand what harassment is and how to involve every employee in preventing it and reporting it when it does occur.

In this session, you will learn:

- What constitutes Sexual Harassment and a Hostile Work Environment
- How to respond to inappropriate behaviors
- Why certain people are more likely to harass than others
- Why reporting is the least common response to Harassment
- How to appropriately handle every Harassment allegation

Let our Leadership Expert “open the door” to a better understanding of Harassment in the Workplace 60-minute, 90-minute, or 2-hour session on this topic!

Lori Dierolf, President of Open Door Training & Development, holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology and has been a Human Resources professional and staff educator for over 20 years. She has coached and trained hundreds of leaders and administrators as a Personal Care Home Administrator, and is also a Certified Dementia Practitioner, a Certified Alzheimer's Disease & Dementia Care Trainer, and a Certified Aging & Alzheimer's Educator.

Lori's sense of humor and real-life examples from her years of experience in long-term care are reasons attendees consistently rate her sessions with 5 Stars!!! Read their testimonials at www.OpenDoorTraining.net!!

Contact Us!

Lori@OpenDoorTraining.net

Or call (717) 471-3572

OPENDOOR
TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT

